Mapping Boston’s Role in the American Revolution

Presented by the Norman B. Leventhal Map Center at the Boston Public Library

Investigate the American Revolution with a geographical focus
Try out strategies for teaching with maps, visuals and documents
Engage and explore with historic sites, scholars and other educators
Create lesson plans and take home resources to enrich your teaching of this time period

WORKSHOP DETAILS

WHEN • July 18 – 22, 2016
AUDIENCE • Grades 3-12 teachers
LOCATIONS • Norman B. Leventhal Map Center • Boston National Historical Park • The Massachusetts Historical Society • The Bostonian Society/Old State House • The Paul Revere House • Old North Church
PDPS/GRADUATE CREDIT • Up to 67.5 PDPs, 3 graduate credits, optional (additional $225 to Framingham State)
COST • $150 (includes refreshments and classroom materials)
REGISTER • maps.bpl.org/professional_development
QUESTIONS • mleblanc@bpl.org, 617-859-2294

maps.bpl.org The Norman B. Leventhal Map Center at the Boston Public Library